

Screenwest Definition of Qualifying Western Australian Regional Expenditure (QWARE)

A Western Australian Region is defined as one of the nine regions established by the Regional Development Commissions Act 1993 (WA).

The nine defined regions are:

- Gascoyne
- Goldfields-Esperance
- Great Southern
- Kimberley
- Mid West
- Peel
- Pilbara
- South West
- Wheatbelt.

Definitions

Acronym	Definition
QWARE	Qualifying Western Australian Regional Expenditure
WAR	Western Australian Resident as per definition in the Screenwest Terms of Trade: A Western Australian resident is a person who is domiciled in Western Australia, and who has been in Western Australia during more than six months immediately preceding the application and is registered on the Western Australian electoral roll.

Acronym	Definition
	In extenuating circumstances where a person is a Western Australian resident but is unable to be registered on the Western Australian electoral roll, proof of residency in Western Australia for more than six months must be provided. You may be required to provide Screenwest with written evidence of your Western Australia Residency which is available from the Australian Electoral Commission.
WAPC	Western Australian Production Company as per definition in the Screenwest Terms of Trade: A Western Australian Resident Company must be registered under the Corporation Law and have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Its principal place of business in Western Australia; and b) At least 50 per cent beneficial ownership by a WAR. Exemptions may apply where the Company can demonstrate a strong track record and commitment to the Western Australian industry over a minimum two-year period immediately preceding the application. The Screenwest Board also reserves the right to make further exemptions in cases where there are exceptional benefits for the local industry.
WARR	A Western Australian Regional Resident is defined as a person who has been domiciled in one of the nine Western Australian Regions, for more than six months immediately preceding the application and can provide proof of that residency if required.
WARPC	A Western Australian Regional Production Company is defined as having its principal place of business registered in one of the nine Western Australian Regions, for more than six months immediately preceding the application.
WARC	A Western Australian Regional Company is defined as having a principal place of business, or a branch or outlet, registered in one of the nine Western Australian Regions.

General Notes	Comments
Regional Expenditure	All qualifying costs paid to a WARR, WARPC or WARC is considered QWARE irrespective of which Western Australian Regions the filming activity is taking place in.
Freight and airfares calculation	Because of the complexity of interstate and international travel and freight costs and the difficulty of breaking down the flow on benefits to regional Western Australia, Screenwest will approve the following percentages as QWARE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 100% of travel within WA is considered QWARE. • 50% of interstate and/or international travel is considered QWARE where the flight or freight either initiates or terminates in WA. Flights that do not land or leave from WA (e.g. Sydney to Melbourne leg or Los Angeles to “Sydney leg) are not considered QWARE.
