
Screenwest Public Fund Grant – Program Guidelines

Screenwest (Australia) Limited (ABN 43 620 492 300)

Overview

Screenwest (Australia) Limited (Screenwest) operates the Screenwest Public Fund from which grants may be provided from time to time (Public Fund Grants). Public Fund Grants are available to individuals for the purpose of advancing culture by promoting the development of the Western Australian film industry which encompasses, amongst other things, the development, making, promotion, distribution, broadcasting and exhibition of films and other screen content (Public Fund Purpose).

These Guidelines provide information about the eligibility and assessment requirements, the decision-making process and the conditions of receipt for Public Fund Grants. Screenwest reserves the right to change or modify the terms outlined in these Guidelines at its discretion, so long as these Guidelines remain compliant with the requirements of the Register of Cultural Organisations.

The Screenwest (Australia) Ltd Terms of Trade do not apply to Public Fund Grants. However, they will apply where Screenwest provides funding from sources other than its Public Fund.

1 Funding available
