

Footloose Production Fund Guidelines

This fund provides grant finance for high profile, market driven, local, national and international footloose, scripted feature films, telemovies and series. Projects must:

- Undertake production in Western Australia.
- Showcase local stories, locations and/or culture to an international audience.
- Assist in the development of the Western Australian screen sector.

Competitive application rounds will be advertised throughout the financial year.

Screenwest encourages applications from First Nations Australians and people from historically under-represented groups.

Funding Available

- Up to $400,000 per project.

Funding is calculated by combining Base Funding plus Funding Incentives.

- Base Funding is calculated at 10% of the Qualifying Western Australian Expenditure (QWAE) of a project capped at $250,000.
- Funding Incentives are calculated via the 'Funding Incentives Table' on page 4, capped at $150,000.

Funding is not automatic, even if an applicant meets all the criteria.

Production funding cap: an applicant / applicant company can access a maximum of $1.4 million per financial year across all Screenwest production funding programs.

Eligibility

Applicant / Company Eligibility

Australian and International producers and production companies can apply for Footloose funding.

The applicant / company must meet the applicable general eligibility requirements of the Screenwest Terms of Trade.

Project Eligibility

1. The project must be a:

- Feature film; or
- Scripted series for traditional television broadcast, streaming or online platform.

The Applicant must clearly demonstrate substantial changes (as determined by Screenwest Management) if the project has previously been declined for funding.

2. The project must have a:

- Current letter of intent or deal memo from a bonafide distributor, broadcaster or streaming platform for one or more of the following:
 - Theatrical release;
 - Television broadcast on free to air or pay/cable television; or
 - Online release (with significant audience share).
- Distribution plan for Australian domestic and Rest of World (ROW) sales.

3. The project must score a minimum of 6 points in the 'Western Australian Elements Table'.

Western Australian Elements Table (explanatory notes provided under the table)

Ref	Western Australian Element	Total Points
A	Producer (with a reasonable and material share of creative control, copyright and profit entitlement)	2

Ref	Western Australian Element	Total Points
B	Underlying Western Australian IP (original concept, book or play created by a Western Australian)	2
C	Identifiable, major Western Australian location/setting or character (identifiable to the national audience)	2
D	Writer	2
E	Director	2
F	Director of Photography	1
G	Line Producer OR Production Manager	1
H	1 st AD	1
I	Production Designer OR Costume Designer	1
J	Editor	1
K	Composer	1
L	Sound Design	1
M	Flexible Points	2

Explanatory Notes:

- To qualify as Western Australian for points allocation, practitioners must meet the definition of a Western Australian Resident outlined in the Screenwest Terms of Trade.
- The total number of points that can be attributed to a position is the number stated in the table. For example, a project that has two Western Australian producers attached will receive a maximum of two points.
 - Individuals can receive points in multiple categories.
 - Writer/ Directors can receive full points in both categories provided they receive full credits and make up at least 50% of the writing or directing team.
- Flexible Points can be attributed to outcomes that haven't been accounted for. The outcomes must align with Screenwest's Strategic Plan priorities. For example, a Western Australian ex-pat or high-profile Western Australian cast member is attached to the project. The Applicant must present a compelling case for these points.

Funding Incentives

Additional funding (on top of the Screenwest Base Funding) may be available via the incentives below.

2. Cultural and Creative: cultural and creative benefits of the project to Western Australia.

3. Economic: economic benefits of the project to Western Australia including the amount of Qualifying Western Australian Expenditure (QWAE) and the employment of key Western Australian crew and post personnel.
4. Commercial: strength of the market attachments.
5. Quality and Feasibility: strength of the script, creative statement and production methodology including the appropriateness of the finance plan.
6. Strategic Alignment: how the project aligns with the relevant strategic initiatives as set out in the Screenwest Strategic Plan.
7. Diversity: how the project supports Screenwest’s commitment to the creation and growth of diverse representation including overall diversity of projects funded by Screenwest.
8. Availability of Screenwest funds.

Production Budget Requirements

Below The Line Crew Capacity Program

Productions that receive Screenwest Production Funding over $100,000 must budget for Attachment or Mentorship opportunity/ies in consultation with Screenwest. The number of opportunities required will be determined by the amount of Screenwest project funding a project receives.

Refer to the Below-The-Line Crew Capacity Program – Production Funding Terms of Reference for more information.

Fees

Productions are required to budget for:

- Screenwest administration fee of 2% of the funding amount capped at $5,000.
- Repayment of any Screenwest development investment funding plus premiums (applies to projects that receive Screenwest project development investment funding).

First Nations Australian Content

Screenwest supports the telling of First Nations Australian stories by First Nations Australian creatives and storytellers.

There must be strong First Nations Australian representation on all projects that tell First Nations Australian stories, through the involvement of First Nations Australian key creatives and thorough consultation, incubation and collaboration that is adequately budgeted for.

Diversity Statement

Screenwest is committed to reflecting the broad diversity of Western Australia's community on and off screen, through stories funded and practitioners supported.

It is important that you / your team of key creatives authentically represent the story and characters in the project.

Screenwest recognises diversity broadly as differences in gender; age; Indigenous identity; cultural and linguistic diversity (CaLD); disability; sexuality and gender identities, including lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex and ace (LGBTQIA+); location (including regional and remote regions) and socio-economic status.
